DIEBOLD ELECTRONIC SECURITY APPOINTS JEFF MCVICAR AS DIRECTOR OF NATIONAL SALES

NORTH CANTON, Ohio – Diebold, Incorporated (NYSE: DBD) has brought more than 20 years of security industry experience to its National Accounts Program with the recent addition of Jeff McVicar to its team.

As the director of national sales for electronic security, McVicar will enhance the leadership of the Diebold National Accounts Program. Particularly adept at developing and building national sales teams, his experience also includes revenue generation, cost containment, territory management, process optimization and more. McVicar will help ensure Diebold’s teams meet the needs of commercial national accounts customers, enabling those customers to achieve their security objectives.

“A hallmark of our National Accounts Program is our ability to understand our customers’ unique needs and customize programs to those needs,” said Bill Fitzhenry, vice president, commercial sales, electronic security. “Jeff’s leadership will help ensure the solutions we deliver are aligned with our customers’ needs.”

McVicar earned his bachelor’s degree from Ohio’s Wright State University. He will operate out of Diebold’s Electronic Security Headquarters in Green, Ohio.
